JOIN FELLOW LEADERS IN THE SKILLS DEVELOPMENT AND TRAINING ARENA AS WE DISCUSS – AND DEBATE – KEY ISSUES RELATING TO THE FUTURE SKILLS NEEDS OF SA'S ECONOMY.

The Skills Development Summit brings together key decision-makers from the public and private sectors to discuss trends and issues in skills development in South Africa.

Confirmed speakers include:

- Prof Mary Metcalfe, Director General, Department of Higher Education and Training
- Joseph Lisindi, Chairman, Botswana National HRD Advisory Council
- Professor Lekoa Solly Mollo, Director-General of PALAMA
- Yandiswa Mpetsheni, Executive Manager, National Statistics System Division, Statistics South Africa
- Joe Samuels, Deputy EO, SAQA
- Barnard Mokwena, Executive Vice President: Human Capital & External Affairs, Lonmin Platinum
- Shaun Rozyn, Executive Director: GIBS Corporate Education
- Michael Cosser, Chief Research Specialist, HSRC ESSD
- Mpho Phaloane, CEO, SANAS
- Dr Nhlanhla Thwala, Director, Wits Language School
- Cosette van Aswegen, General Manager, Investors in People
- Brent Oakes, Director, Siyaya Skills Academy
- Dirk van Dyk, CEO, National Tooling Initiative,
- Andre Arendse, Executive Board Member, Riski Diski and former Bafana Bafana Goalkeeper
- Graham Emmett, Managing Director, KBC Health and Safety
- Representative from Siyakha Consulting
- Representatives from Ditsela, COSATU and NACTU

Incorporated within the Skills Development Summit is the Skills Development Expo. All delegates will be registered on the unique Meetings Direct programme that puts interested parties together - one on one - immediately, unlike the days of networking when a delegate could spend many hours searching for the appropriate contact often without success.

TOPICS TO BE DISCUSSED INCLUDE:

- Green training creating new job opportunities
- The role of skills development in economic development
- BBBEE in skills development
- Facilitating access to education, training and career paths
- Analysis of current skills trends by Stats SA
- Organised labour's role in skills development
- Training to secure future Foreign Direct Investment
